Russia's influence in the region especially in the coming days the Paris administration's dialogue with Moscow will bring more clarity to this situation in addition to France the United Kingdom also reacted to Vladimir

6:33

Putin's

6:34

critical decision to host Palestinian

6:36

representatives in Moscow the UK has demanded that Hamas be disbanded and its leadership sent into Exile so that it no longer poses a threat to Israel in favor of a technocratic leadership within a demilitarized governing authority to serve until elections in response to the warnings and demands of the Western countries

6:56

Hamas has also reacted

Hamas demanded

that if it participates in the Moscow talks the discussion should focus on rebuilding the Palestine Liberation Organization and Reviving a committee of Palestinian factions as a step towards the establishment of a technocratic government until conditions allow elections to be held at the same time

7:00

Hamas demanded the resignation of the current Palestinian Authority president mmud abas Hamas has ruled Gaza since 2007 when it expelled the PA after winning last years elections and unlike the PA does not believe in a two-state solution because it would require recognition of Israel the Palestinian Authority in the West Bank recognizes Israel but is widely seen as in need of Reform and Democratic accountability

Hamas is completely opposed to this View and does not want Mahmud Abbas in power it remains to be seen what Russia's strategic position on this issue will be

and how it will balance between Hamas and the Palestinian Authority this 8:02

balance will probably become clearer after the meeting in 8:05

Moscow what kind of policy Putin will 8:08 pursue until and after the meeting is of 8:10

course very important in this Regard in addition the attitude of the West on 8:16

8:13

this issue in the future is at least as 8:18

important as Russia's

8:20

approach although Western Powers

8:22

disagree with Russia on many issues many 8:25

Western officials do not believe that 8:27

Moscow is playing a destructive role in 8:30

Gaza Arab countries in the region are 8:33

divided over the war the issue is 8:35

further Complicated by the fact that 8:37

different Arab states have different

8:39

views on the future of Hamas Qatar for 8:42

example believes that Hamas will somehow

8:44

survive and its existence cannot be 8:46

denied however Egypt's foreign minister

8:49

Sam shukri argues that Hamas is outside

8:52

the accepted majority of the Palestinian

8:54

people including the recognition of 8:56

Israel so countries in the region do not agree on the relationship between Hamas

8:59

9:01
and the West Bank but what do 9:03
Palestinians think about relations 9:05
between Hamas and the West Bank the 9:07
Palestinian Authority established as 9:09
part of the 1993 Oslo peace agreement 9:12
between Israel and the PLO has seen its 9:14
legitimacy steadily undermined by the 9:17
construction of Jewish settlements in 9:19
the occupied West Bank in addition many 9:22
Palestinians now view the West Bank
9:24
Authority as corrupt undemocratic and 9:27
disconnected this is why Palestinians 9:29
continue to insist on a more independent 9:31
approach to governance the West Bank 9:34
administration on the other hand has 9:36
begun to discuss hamas's inclusion in 9:39
the administration asked whether hamas's 9:41
inclusion in the broader PLO platform 9:44
would alienate International Partners sh 9:47
said Hamas is an integral part of the 9:50
Palestinian political Arena sha spoke 9:53
about the preconditions that Hamas must 9:55
accept in order to become a member of 9:57
the PLO Hamas 's insistence on 10:00
recognizing the PLO platform would force 10:02
it to recognize Israel but for now the 10:05

armed group in Gaza is not interested in 10:08

this proposal in the future the 10:10

possibility of Hamas recognizing Israel

10:13

seems almost impossible in short the 10:16

Middle East is in a big spiral while the 10:19

negotiations for the solution of this 10:21

situation continue the common view of 10:23

the world countries is that the global 10:25

crisis should not grow anymore thank you
